

Q-doc 515

adjustable document holder

 BAKKER ELKHUIZEN

Work Smart - Feel Good

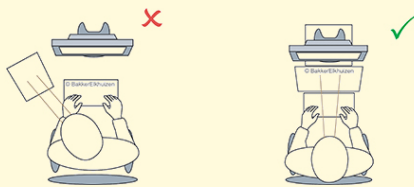

Work in-line, even with heavy files

The Q-doc 515 document holder is placed between screen and keyboard. This prevents undue head and neck movements.

This document holder can be used for all kinds of documents, including thick books and heavy files.

To prevent neck rotation, documents have to be placed between the keyboard and display screen. A sloping work surface reduces flexion of the neck and thus increases work comfort.
